My Wish Foundation

You should donate to the My Wish Foundation<sup>(MWF)</sup> which gives the gift of meeting a famous football, baseball, soccer, hockey, or tennis player.

It would be great to donate to MWF because it helps people. It helps people by making a kid feel good inside. The child who benefits from MWF also would get the experience of learning something new about sports.

It would be good for them because they learn something and meet new people that's their role model. It's good to meet your role model because you may learn something new about the person. For example, a child may get something really valuable from their favorite player. The child may also learn secrets to their favorite athlete's success.

I think this foundation would be good to do because it's nice to do and I like helping people. People may give
